Professional mental health staff help to connect people with services and offer their support if you just need to talk.

PROBLEMS FINDING HEALTH CARE APPOINTMENTS?

Contact your PCP. Appointments are more easily available with your main doctor than appointments
with your specialist, and they can usually help.

Call the number on the back of your insurance card.
They can help find providers in your area and in your network, and can sometimes help schedule appointments.

If you have one, contact your disability case worker.
